

Josh Abel

j.abel@northeastern.edu (610) 937-3164 <https://www.linkedin.com/in/joshuadabel/>
41 Andrews Street, Norwood MA, 02062

Work Experience

Northeastern University 2023-Present
Visiting Assistant Professor

Analysis Group, Inc. 2019-2023
Associate (2019-2021), Manager (2022), Consultant (2023)

Education

Harvard University: Ph D in Economics 2013-2019

- Honors: Distinction in Teaching Award (3X), Joint Center for Housing Studies Meyer Fellowship
- Teaching Fellow: Ec 1010a; Ec 1011b; Ec 2450a

Swarthmore College: BA, Major in Economics 2007-2011

- Honors: Phi Beta Kappa, High Honors, Adams Prize

Teaching Experience

Northeastern University

- Econ 2316 (Intermediate Microeconomics)
- Econ 2560 (Applied Econometrics)
- Econ 6105 (Advanced Mathematics and Statistics for Economists; Ph D course)

Brandeis University

- Econ 184b (Econometrics I)

Harvard University

- Econ S-10A (Principles of Microeconomics)

Research

Peer-Reviewed Articles

"How Do Mortgage Refinances Affect Debt, Default, and Spending? Evidence from HARP"
(with Andreas Fuster), 2021, American Economic Journal: Macroeconomics, 13(2).

"The Measurement and Behavior of Uncertainty: Evidence from the ECB Survey of Professional Forecasters" (with Robert Rich, Joseph Song, and Joseph Tracy), 2016, Journal of Applied Econometrics, 31(3).

Working Papers

"Equilibrium Mortgage Design with Heterogeneous Borrowers"

"The Dynamics of Home Sales in the Presence of Mortgage Lock-In and Their Implications for Policy"